"NOT A CANDIDATE==BUT," SAYS ROOSEVELT

France Gives Final Warning to Italy; Assembles Warship Fleet

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

Copyright, 1912, by The Press Publish

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1912. 18 PAGES

PRICE ONE CENT.

FRANCE, IN ULTIMATUM TO ITALY, THREATENS BREAK OVER SEIZURE OF STEAMERS

If Demand to Surrender Turks Taken From Ship Is Refused Relations Will Cease.

TO RECALL AMBASSADOR

French Warships Will Also Guard Vessels-Fleet Ordered to Cherbourg.

PARIS, Jan. 23.-Should Italy refuse to accede to France's demand that the Turks arrested on board the selzed sador to Italy, is due to arrive in Rome on the subject of the French steamers partly influenced by an interview which, alleged, Tomaso Tittoni, Italian Ambassador to France, gave to the papers intimating that Italy would not surrender the Turks she had taken dor Tittoni

French Minister of Marine has ordered armored cruisers Gloire, Conde and La times.

A man said that a good scare would when a big-voiced man in the destroyers, off Cherbourg on Jan. 25 do more than anything else, So a shouted:

"Three cheers for the Duke."

Many believe the assembling of the warship fleet has a bearing on the strained relations between France and Italy.

TOULON, France, Jan. 23.—The battle-ship cruisers Edgar Quinet, Leon Gam-betta and Ernest Renan, accompanied by five submarines, sailed from here make her laugh and thereby stop the attack. to-day to carry out manoeuvre practice attack.

When the minetrels arrived and When the minetrels arrived and

RICHESON DYING. SHERIFF TELLS COUNCIL BOARD

Thinks, However, Slayer May Be Kept Alive Until Day Set for His Execution.

BOSTON, Jan. 28 .- To an inspection committee of the City Council, Sheriff John Quinn jr. declared to-day that Rev.

HICCOUGHING GIRL STILL A SUFFERER: ALL CURES FAIL

Doctors, Jokers, Crank Curists and Advisers All Over Country Fail to Aid Mary Shinn.

North Twenty-fourth street, this city. who began to blocough while at dinner on Jan, 4, was still suffering from the strange affliction to-day. And this in in the Mediterranean.

Spite of the constant efforts of physical parents, the French Ambas- clans to alleviate her condition and the carrying out of devious ideas proposed most every city in the country.

The real allment of the girl has diagnosed by her physicians as a tuber-cular affection of the throat. Miss Shinn has partly yielded to treatment and has cious has been tried by Miss Shinn's mother, but without avail. Persons in Troy, New Haven and Hartford and

One woman suggested red pepper. snuffed by the patient three times a day physician announced that he considered the patient in too critical a condition to try this method of curing her. Instead he asked that a hypnosist be called in and try to stop the spasmodic muscular convulsions by mental suggestion. If the hyunotist fails the min-strel cure will be tried this afternoon. Mrs. Hamilton, another daughter or in response to the appeals sent out for jokes to be told the young woman by amateur actors, riddles, paradies on popular songs, speeches in dialect and loses have come from all parts of the country.

The lokesmiths who are anxious to aid the young woman's cure have submitted draft Parkway to Columbia University and through Riverside Drive to Grant's Riverside Riverside Drive to Grant's Riverside Rive ing or Registering of Wagers. ALBANY, Jan. 31.-While the Legisla-

Appeals to-day.

The Court this afternoon reversed the balanced: claimed:

BIG CROWD CHEERS ROYAL PARTY ON SIGHTSEEING TOUR

Duke of Connaught Takes Walk and Is Held Up by Camera Brigade.

"MET" TOWER.

Governor-General of Canada Will Visit President Taft on Thursday.

White to-day's programme for the Princess Patricia, included a juncheor dinner and "small dance" at the Madison avenue home of Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid they found time to continue their sight-seeing and visiting in an informal way.

The Connaughte got a bird's-eye view of the regions hereabouts this morn ing when they ascended to the pinnacl of the Metropolitan tower and glimpsed the landscapes and seascapes on all sides through binoculars and telescopes. They also got a taste of a New York crush in leaving the buildthrough the district that they were sightseeing aloft.

The entire ducal party. sador and Mrs. Reid, made the journey They were met at the Madison avenu

CROWD CHEERED DUKE AND PARTY AT THE ENTRANCE.

Morgan library and galleries. They were met at the entrance by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morgan Jr., Mr. and Mrs Hebert Satterice, Miss Ann Morgan and the financier, who escorted them through the Morgan private museum,

Wife Who Tells How She Found Hubby in Naughty Pink Pajamas

CH CORINE PRINCE HUSTAGE 19

GAMBLING OUTFITS SEIZED IN RAIDS ARE GIVEN BAUK BY COURT

Persons Accused Beat Case and Owners Get Implements

by Writ of Replevin.

bearing under his arm the top of a the party made a circle about the wom- table marked in figures and letters in top came one carrying a contraption wagon standing at the sure. None of the fight has been the officers paid any particular attention to the occurrence. The reporter had stated to day that arrangements would have that gambling implements taken in raids are destroyed by the police and he inferred that these implements were on their way to destruction.

The drill floor is to be 100,500 feet, a space equivalent to sixty city lots and on their way to destruction.

The plan worked splendidly, they Vanderitt in the purchase of $20,000 feet.

John Quinn fr. declared to-day that Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Miss Avis Lipnes, was in a dying continued to the has amended the law so as to make it a crime to engage in pool selling or bookmaking with or without writing. It as not changed in any respect the law sould survive until the day set for the exception on May 18.

ALBANY, Jan. 2:—While the Legislation with a said discount in two discounts of the growth as to recording and registering betz, as they are conficiently as the books and the stand discount in the first District for transport series of the growth as the law of the goods." he observed the man become and rifle exclamation from Mrs. Hustage, recorded by the witness.

ALBANY, Jan. 2:—While the Legislation of the said discount in wings at length, bowing graciously to his wife east through Forey-inhich street skirmish of commanding of the growth and the delignment of the work of the growth as the command of the goods." he observed defining as they are some tinguished looking companion turned discount in wings.

Features of the great armice will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be defined to make the goods." he observed the same tinguished looking companion turned delignment will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be built in wings.

Features of the great armice will be for transport set of the great armice will be deligned.

Features of the great armice will be for transport set of the great armice will be for transport set of the great armice will be for transport set of the great armice will be for transport set of the great armice will be for transport set of the great armice will be for transport set of the great armice will be for tra Richeson was introduced to the menibers of the committee. The Councillors said that Richeson looked very week and emaclated. His cheeks were sunken
and emaclated. His cheeks were sunken and very white.

The Court this afternoon reversed the
colaimed:

DUKE CONSENTED TO POSE FOR
tody who was convicted of making a
bet. Chief Judge Cullen for the court
the Court this afternoon reversed the
colaimed:

DUKE CONSENTED TO POSE FOR
tody who was convicted of making a
bet. Chief Judge Cullen for the court
the Court this afternoon reversed the
colaimed:

DUKE CONSENTED TO POSE FOR
tody who was convicted of making a
bet. Chief Judge Cullen for the court

TO BUILD WORLD'S GREATEST ARMORY

Magnificent $1,200,000 Structure Planned in Bronx for Eighth Artillery Regiment.

Three cheers for the Duke."

Lieut.-Detective Funston and Agent Parkinson of the Canadian Secret Service, got the Duke and his party out of the crush by organizing a sort of flying wedge with the aid of several uniformed attendants of the building. They had to use force to break a inne through the mob at the entrance of the building. They had to use force to break a inne through the mob at the entrance of the building. Unless the reporter's eyes deceived him but they finally negotiated the curb and assisted the women in the party into the waiting automobiles.

From the Metropolitan Building the Ambassador and his guests went to the home of J. P. Morgan and inspected the success to the correspondent had entered an aparty building to the world were flied in the fluiding Department of the Brow to day for a structure destined to be the future home of the Eighth Reciment of Caust Artillery. The armory, which will plot 300 by 600 feet at the junction of Jerome avenue and Kingsbridge road, plot 300 by 600 feet at the junction of Jerome avenue and Kingsbridge road, the afternoon had entered an aparty ment house at No. 22 West Thirty-ment house at No. 22 West Policemen and detectives passed while the strange burdens were transferred promoted by Gov. Dis last work and levided upon, it being agreed one of placed in command of the artillery section of the National Guardens was been as a messenger buy, obtain entrance to comber that came high over the bow it," said the Colonel, with a charactery good as His Royal Highness and his purposes.

The roulette wheels and chips removed and harness shops. The company betrayed no concern many a ploture gun snapped its trigger from Headquarters to-day were in monant and harness shops. The company betrayed no concern quarters are most spacious, while the "Seemingly, you have what is curting the built in wings in value. As the Doke and his tail distance of writes of replevin served officers' quarters will be built in wings rently termed the 'goods.' 'no observed of the great armory will be a at length, bowing graciously to his wife.

Donald A. Turner, who is engaged in and that Richeson looked very week and seminated. His cheeks were numbers were numbers were numbers were numbers were numbers with a successful and the control of the country of the from the country of the grown on the country of the grown of o

NOW SHE DOESN'T SHE'S GOT DIVORCE

Combination of His Pink Pajamas and Titian-Haired Lady Does the Work.

GEE WHIZ, WIFIE'S GLAD

Billy Doesn't Mind, Either-He Grins, and Mrs. Hustace Kisses Mamma.

Prince Hustace, New York's newest divorcee, as she left Justice Platzek's part of the Supreme Court to-day with judgment for divorce against William A Hustace, an athletic young man, who is a broker in Broad street.

"And Judge Platzek, isn't he a dark ing? Oh, how long I've tried to be divorced from Billy. We knew he was we could never eatch litter. But we go him, didn't we, mother? Gee whiz, but And Mrs. Hustace clasped her arms about the neck of her remarkably young looking mother, Mrs. Cora A. Prince, and kissed her gleefully. Then she shook hands with her counsel, Benjamin F. Spellman and Martin Zatulove. Hustace left the court house by another his face still bearing the indifforent grin it assumed when the case broadcloth suit of modish appearance and were gray fox furs. Her hat was a small toque affair of taffeta and feathers. Mrs. Prince, not one whit a black velvet gown and wide picture hat sumptuously trimmed with feath-and by a detective. Mrs. Hustace and Plans for the finest and largest armory in the afternoon that Bustace and the home of J. P. Morgan and inspected the and similar pastimes.

WIFE AND MOTHER-IN-LAW WERE AMONG "RAIDERS."

Morgan library and galleries. They Policemen and detectives passed while Brig.-tien. David E. Augiln, who was to the bounc. A plan of attack was

The jokesmiths who are analous to all far by one woman's cure have submitted the young was possible to the continents were form the first and three way to destruction.

The plan worked splendidly. The young and submited to wintle to drill the ontire way to destruction. The plan worked splendidly. The plan worked sple languorously from a lounge, where he tary circles over the possibility of war offices full of jubilation.

"Then if you're delighted I'm delighted

SERVE IF CALLED, BUT HE'S NOT A CANDIDATE

Ex-President Publicly Tells Leader of Kansas Republicans He Is a Patriot and Will Serve if Party Calls Him.

WON'T ASK FOR IT," HE DECLARES TO CALLER.

Visitor Says Republicans All Over the Country Will Now Insist Upon Naming Him.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt announced to-day in a semi-public manner that while he is not seeking the Presidential nomination he will serve his country if needed.

The announcement was made in the reception room of the offices of the Outlook to Jason Yurann of Blue Rapids, Kan., a caller, in the presence of an Evening World reporter, another newspaper man and J. P. Conklin of No. 125 East Twenty-third street, and several of the em-

Mr. Yurann and all the others who heard Col. Roosevelt took his statement to mean that while he will not seek the nomination he will not refuse it. An announcement to that effect has been predicted by several persons who have called on the Colonel within the past two weeks.

the country, a leader in politics and an ardent Roosevelt beoster. He OVER WAR SCARE velt, and made an appointment yester-day by telephone to be at the Outlook office at a time specified to-day. 20. New York sepecially to see Col. Roose Yurann and his friend. Mr. Conkits, were on hand at the appointed time. The Colonel, instead of inviting Mr. Yurann and Mr. Conkitn into his private sanctum, came out into the public reception room. He greeted Mr. Yuram effusively, and the Kansan recalled previous meetings

"I have come all the way from Honses to congratulate you, Gol. Rocco.

seas was borne ashore to-day when the velt," said Mr. Yarann. "I know you cannot afford to seek the nomina Line got in two days late. Throughout for the Presidency, and I congressed the first five days of the voyage great you on your stand." "I am not a candidate. I am not

"I have told all my friends in Ma Among the fifty passengers on the see and the West," Mr. Turana went Among the fifty passengers on the Minnewaska was J. A. S. McDonald, on, "that white you are not seeking the Minnewaska was J. A. S. McDonald, nomination you are a patriot and will nomination you are a patriot and will who has recently acted for William K. serve your country if needed."

"Most assuredly," replied the Colonel. That wound up the meeting. Col. Roosevelt went back into his private office. Mr. Yurann left the Outlook

It means," he said, "that Col. Roose veit is going to be the nominee. He cannot refuse the demand that will grow up for him."

immediate outbreak of war. For in- velt that The Evening World would eket, it was testified stance, they are drilling now for the print the story of his interview with "Well, what have you got to say?" stance, they are drilling now for the print the story of his interview with Mr. Yurann. Mr. Harper brought back horses and troops. All the Atlantic word that the Colonel would refuse to Transport liners are to have special discuss his talk with Mr. Yurann-that drills, as they are considered ideal ves- it was bet intended for publication. rels for transport service. The Minne-Mr. Yurann made it very plain to apolls is now in London undergoing this The Evening World reporter that he and her mother.

Oh. I'm just delighted, results was been ordered to prepare for a drill upon tion was of a private nature, and that spread broadcast the news that Mr. if it was tendered to him.

CUPID'S BOWER INQUIRY.

Alderman Dowling Makes New KANSAS LEADER HAS NO FEAR